 For a donation of $35 or more, there is a beautiful Folder recording the gift and donor to be presented to the family.
 In Honor of Edward & Nina Majka on their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary; requested by Joan Mullaney.

RITE of CHRISTIAN INITIATION of ADULTS (RCIA)

The RCIA is in the process which the Catholic Church employs to educate and initiate all new adult members into the Catholic Community.

If you or someone you know would be interested in exploring the possibility of becoming a member of the Catholic Church, you or they would need to participate in this process. In addition, the RCIA is also designed to bring persons who were baptized Catholic, but never finished their Sacraments into full Communion with the Church.

We will begin our Sessions in mid September and run through Easter of 2017. If you are interested in exploring this possibility, please contact Deacon Mike Franks to set up an appointment. Keep watching the Bulletin for further information as it becomes available.

You can reach Deacon Mike by leaving a message with the Rectory Office at: 215.679.9275.

ARCHDIOCESAN NEWS

HOUSE BILL 1947: A Letter from Archbishop Chaput and Reverend Robert A. Roncase

Dear Parishioners,

Previously information was shared with you about the commitment of our Local Church to assist survivors of sexual abuse and to prevent such abuse from taking place. I have also shared information about House Bill 1947 and its potential to devastate our parishes, schools and charitable ministries. Many of you contacted your elected officials to voice your concerns about this matter in a respectful way and I am very thankful to you for doing that.

Today, I am sharing an update on the status of this legislation. House Bill 1947 was the subject of a Senate Judiciary Committee Hearing in Harrisburg last month.

Following the Committee's determination that the retroactive provision was unconstitutional, an amended version of the Bill was considered by the full Senate. The Amendment stripped the retroactive provisions pertaining to the Civil Statute of Limitations covering sexual abuse. The Senate voted unanimously in favor of the amended version of the bill. The amended bill must now be reconsidered by the members of the House of Representatives, which we expect will take place in the Fall.

When additional information becomes available, I will give you a clear update. Please join me in praying for all of our elected officials who work hard to serve our communities each day. Again, thank you and May God Bless you all.

Sincerely in Jesus Christ,
Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, OFM, Cap.

SUNDAY, JULY 31, 2016 EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Strike it rich

Where does true wealth lie? In his Spiritual Exercises, Saint Ignatius writes, “If I have nothing, my only possession is Christ . . . and this is to be really true to myself—the humility of a person whose whole reality and value is grounded in being created and redeemed in Christ.” The call of a Christian is to be spiritually secure, not taking stock in what the world gives, but in the promises of Christ. That is where true wealth lies: in being fully given to Christ, so that nothing can come between you and the love of God.

TODAY’S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23; Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11; Luke 12:13-21 (114).
“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.”

MONDAY, AUGUST 1

FEAST OF ALPHONSUS LIGUORI, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

What’s your gift to the world?

Vincent Van Gogh said, “The best way to know God is to love many things.” Alphonsus Liguori embodied this wisdom, as a prolific spiritual author as well as an accomplished musician, poet, and painter. With more than 100 works on spirituality to his name, his writings have been translated into dozens of languages and thousands of editions, making him one of the most widely read Catholic authors of all time. When we discover our gifts and use them to serve God, our works multiply. What are your gifts and how will you put them in service to the world?

TODAY’S READINGS: Jeremiah 28:1-17; Matthew 14:13-21 (407). “His heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick.”

TUESDAY, AUGUST 2

FEAST OF PETER JULIAN EYMARD, PRIEST

Let God mould your life

In the world of sculpture, the name Rodin ranks right up there with Michelangelo. The great French sculptor—creator of The Thinker and many other masterpieces—was a renowned artist by 1900, but it might never have been that way. In 1862, Rodin’s beloved sister died and he felt he had let her down. Deeply anguished and guilt ridden, he sought refuge by joining a Catholic order, the Congregation of the Blessed Eucharist. Saint Peter Julian Eymard, founder and head of the congregation, sensing that Rodin was running from his pain and wasn’t really suited to religious life, encouraged him to continue with his sculpture. Rodin returned to work and the rest is history. God blesses each of us with gifts. Serve God by developing yours in the service of humanity.

TODAY’S READINGS: Jeremiah 30:1-2, 12-15, 18-22; Matthew 14:22-36 or Matthew 15:1-2, 10-14 (408). “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?”

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3

Everyone is worthy

When you pass a person begging on a street corner, what goes through your mind? Is there a quick calculation going on as to their worthiness? Some variation on: “He looks like he could be working”; “Why is she smoking her money away if she is broke?”; “If I give him something, he’s only going to spend it on booze.” It’s easy to slip into a “worthiness calculation,” but what should give us pause is the awareness of the ways we also fall short of the ideal. There is wisdom in the cliché “There but for the grace of God” Remember it the next time someone asks for assistance.

TODAY’S READINGS: Jeremiah 31:1-7; Matthew 15:21-28 (409). “Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters.”

THURSDAY, AUGUST 4

FEAST OF JOHN VIANNEY, PRIEST

A pastor knows his flock

A good pastor can transform a parish. This was certainly true of the small rural parish led by Saint John Vianney. Known as the “world’s pastor,” Vianney led the people of Ars, France in the early 1800s by the example of his faith and life. Vianney attracted more than 100,000 pilgrims from throughout Europe and was remarkably present to all whom he encountered. He drew others into God’s love through his own love, modeling the true role of a pastor—to be a reflection of Christ. In doing so, he affected not only his parish but the whole church. Remember the patron saint of parish priests in your prayers today.

TODAY’S READINGS: Jeremiah 31:31-34; Matthew 16:13-23 (410). “I will place my law within them, and write it upon their hearts; I will be their God, and they shall be my people.”

FRIDAY, AUGUST 5

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE BASILICA OF MARY MAJOR

At home with Mary

It may seem to you that we are honoring a church building on this feast of the Basilica of Mary Major, but in truth the church honors not a building, but Mary the mother of God on this feast. This basilica has remained a beacon of strength and beauty that has honored Mary since the fourth century. It reminds us that Mary intercedes on our behalf and is a perfect model of courage and faithfulness for each of us to imitate. But you don’t have to travel to Rome to meditate on patron saints. Read about the patron of your parish community and ask for that saint’s assistance.

TODAY’S READINGS: Nahum 2:1, 3; 3:1-3, 6-7; Matthew 16:24-28 (411).

“Jesus said to his disciples . . . begin to follow in my footsteps.”

SATURDAY, AUGUST 6

FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

Let faith take you to the next level

Why do people climb mountains? Is it the view? The rarefied air that refreshes? The challenge? All of that may be true but in biblical times, people also climbed a lot of mountains because they were in the way! Mountains dot the landscape in biblical regions. If you want to appreciate the power of the many transformational events in the Bible that happened to take place on mountains, climb one yourself, or at least visit the Rockies, Appalachia, or some other higher-elevation destination. Perhaps you, too, will be transformed!

TODAY’S READINGS: Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14; 2 Peter 1:16-19; Luke 9:28b-36 (614). “Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up a mountain to pray.”
