Straight Talk about Annulments

Thursday, November 3, 2016

7:00 PM to 8:30 PM

Saint Maria Goretti Church

in the Chapel (located inside the Church)

1601 Derstine Road, Hatfield

. . . A Church Annulment

When it comes to questions of divorce, annulments and marriage in the Church, there are many misunderstandings and misconceptions. Questions such as: "Can I receive Holy Communion as a divorced (and not remarried) person?" "If my spouse and I are married outside the Church, how do we go about celebrating the Marriage as a Sacrament?" "Why might a non-Catholic need to avail himself or herself of the annulment process?" - are routinely asked by many people and often the responses to the questions are misleading, half-truths or completely erroneous.

Msgr. Paul DiGirolamo, a Judge of the Archdiocesan Tribunal, will speak to provide clear and accurate information concerning annulments in the Catholic Church. He will provide time to address questions that may surface. Msgr. DiGirolamo is a priest of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and has spent many years assisting people who have experienced a divorce to explore the possibility of marriage in the Church.

While the evening is intended for divorced persons who have questions concerning a Church Annulment, the Presentation is open to everyone. Perhaps there is someone in your family, a friend or co-worker who needs sound, clear information on this process. Be an ambassador of good news by providing people you know with the proper information that seeks to offer healing of the past and hope for a new beginning in the future.

For more information or to register, please [contact director \[aff@stmariagoretti.net\]\(mailto:contact_director_aff@stmariagoretti.net\)](mailto:contact_director_aff@stmariagoretti.net) or call the rectory at: 215.721.0199 ext. 202.

"Pro-Life Articles"

Abortion in America:

"America you are beautiful and blessed. The ultimate test of your greatness is the way you treat every human being, but especially the weakest and most defenseless.

If you want equal justice for all and true freedom and lasting peace, then America, defend life". ... Pope John Paul II.

America was founded upon the "self-evident truth" that all humans are endowed with the unalienable right to LIFE. Yet a baby is aborted every 23 seconds in the U.S. Over 4,000 babies are aborted every day. About 60 million babies have been aborted since the decision of Roe VS Ware in January 1973. Abortion is truly "America's Holocaust".

As a result of Roe VS Wade and sister case, Doe V Bolton, America has some of the most liberal laws on abortion in the world, effectively allowing abortion on demand throughout the whole nine months of pregnancy.

The abortion rate in the U.S. is higher than Western Europe and Canada. It is not as high as the rates in China, Cuba and the former Soviet Union countries which have reached epidemic levels.

Teenagers constitute around 20% of all abortions in the U.S. About 55% of minors who have abortions do not tell their parents.

17 states use public funds to pay for abortions, so about 15% of all abortions in the U.S. are paid for with public money. Our tax dollars fund Planned Parenthood, the nations largest abortion provider and promoter of casual sex and abortion.

PENNY AUCTION

Want to spend a few pennies to win great prizes while supporting a good cause? Come out to The Open Link's Penny Auction on Friday, November 4 at the East Greenville Fire House. Doors open at 5:30 pm; bidding begins 6:45 pm.

Donations of any type are being gratefully accepted, from monetary contributions to gift certificates to handmade items. ALL donations are tax deductible.

The Event will feature a 50/50 Raffle, baked goods, and a huge variety of prizes. Admission is $4 for adults; $2 for children 4-17 and FREE for ages 3 and under.

Light refreshments will be for sale provided by the E.G.F.C. Ladies Auxiliary.

Come out for a fun time and fellowship with your community for a great cause. All proceeds will go toward the agency's programs including its Choice Food Pantry; Meals on Wheels; Utility Assistance, Domestic Violence and Employment Counseling; GED/HSE Classes and Health & Wellness Classes at The Center.

For more information, call: 215.679.6550 or email to volunteers@theopenlink.org.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Try a little tenderness

Pope Francis reminds us that Catholics are a mission people. During this Year of Mercy, the mission of the church takes on a special meaning, he says. “All of us are invited to ‘go out’ as missionary disciples, each generously offering their talents, creativity, wisdom, and experience in order to bring the message of God’s tenderness and compassion to the entire human family.” Tenderness seems to be in short supply these days, especially in the midst of an often harsh election season. Where can you bring a little mercy to bear on the public conversation?

TODAY’S READINGS: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18; 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18; Luke 18:9-14 (150). “The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, ‘O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity.’”

MONDAY, OCTOBER 24

MEMORIAL OF ANTHONY MARY CLARET, BISHOP

Read all about it

How do you keep up on events in your church or faith community? Chances are, you have at some point seen a website or read a paper published by a member of the Catholic Press Association. The association has been around for more than a hundred years and has more than 600 members. The Catholic press is a great resource for Catholics to learn about their faith and traditions. And the organization looks to Saint Anthony Mary Claret, a prolific author and publisher, for inspiration as its patron saint. Be a patron of the Catholic press in your diocese, so that it can continue to inform and inspire future generations.

TODAY’S READINGS: Ephesians 4:32—5:8; Luke 13:10-17 (479). “You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light.”

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25

Can’t put a good book down

Sometimes when you reach the end of a story, you feel exhilarated by the experience of it. And sometimes it’s so good, you read it again. In Judaism, Simchat Torah, the holiday celebrated today, means “Rejoicing in the Torah” and marks the completion of the annual cycle of weekly Torah readings that starts with the beginning of Genesis and concludes with the end of Deuteronomy. This festive day is so joyous that there is sometimes even dancing in the street! The cycle of readings is immediately and endlessly repeated. Pick up the Good Book today and every day.

TODAY’S READINGS: Ephesians 5:21-33; Luke 13:18-21 (480). “What is the kingdom of God like? To what can I compare it?”

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26

Come on in

During this year, the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy which ends on November 20, Catholics have the opportunity to pass through special holy doors of mercy, designated at cathedrals and major churches all over the world, and receive an indulgence for the remission of sin.

By symbolically opening a door and walking through it, you show that you seek God's boundless compassion and forgiveness and that you will find it in Christ. Enter the holy doors at a church near you before the Year of Mercy is out—and invite others to come along.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 6:1-9;

Luke 13:22-30 (481).

“Lord, open the door for us.”

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27

Healing power of prayer

When it comes to your health, you can always turn to the saints for help. In fact, there are many saints who are known to intercede on behalf of the sick for particular ailments and conditions. About to have surgery? Ask Saint Luke the Evangelist. Suffering from arthritis? Invoke Saint Alphonsus Ligouri. Have a headache? Entreat Saint Teresa of Avila. Catholics also have a sacrament for healing: Anointing of the Sick. No matter the physical outcome, remember that the primary purpose of your prayers is for spiritual healing, comfort, and courage.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 6:10-20;

Luke 13:31-35 (482). “Behold, I cast out demons and I perform healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I accomplish my purpose.”

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28

FEAST OF SIMON AND JUDE, APOSTLES

How can I help you, pray tell?

We don't know a lot about the life of Saint Jude, one of the apostles, but people often turn to him for intercession in “hopeless causes.” A friend in need is a friend indeed, so be that kind of friend for those in need in your own life. When they ask for help, find a way to respond. You can't do everything for them, but as Jesuit Daniel Berrigan once said, “No one can do everything, but everyone can do something.” Take Saint Jude as your inspiration and find a way to bring hope to the hopeless.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 2:19-22;

Luke 6:12-16 (666). “Jesus went up to the mountain to pray, and he spent the night in prayer to God.”

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29

Glory is a holy mystery

The death of boxer and social agitator Muhammad Ali this year touched admirers worldwide. The achievements of men and women like Ali are greater than the sum of their defeats. While the self-proclaimed “Greatest” was a phenomenon at his sport, Ali did more to raise the consciousness of Americans to the racism that permeated his generation. Prejudice will remain our nation's scourge until all lives matter. Lift your eyes and offer your heart to the Rosary's Glorious Mysteries, in which new ways are possible, and the humblest wears the crown.

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 1:18b-26;

Luke 14:1, 7-11 (484).

“For to me life is Christ and death is gain.”
